I am the colours of the vibrant fabric that weave our tribes together.
I am the music that makes us want to dance, the drum that gives us rhythm.
I am the sports fan who stands by you, proudly singing our National Anthem.
I am the click in every language, the nickname and the humour that slides off our tongues.
I am the aroma from red hot coals, burning meat and the sweet taste of fruit.
I am the wines from our vineyards and the fresh flowing water from our streams.
I am the mirage in the blazing sun, the electric storm and the crisp winter morning.
I am the rolling sea and the giant mountain range that shields us from the winds.
I am a free bird, soaring in the thermal, gazing upon the wild savanna.
I am the rich soil, the floral landscape and the raw gold beneath our earth.
I am our heritage, our history that helps us see who we've become.
I am the imperfections in our society that helps us realise we can do better.
I am the handshake, the kiss, the hug that embraces our diversity.

I am blue skies that know no end
And the rain that falls on the desert sand
I am the antelope, standing tall against the sun
And the canyons where the ancient rivers run
I am the smoke that thunders
And the trail where the Maasai wanders
I am the silver-back, ghost-like in the mist
And the treasure of a lifetime that fits inside a fist
I am the child, drinking water with her hands
And the king on the hill, surveying his lands
I am the great, prehistoric lakes, as vast as the sea
And the zebra on the plains, running wild, running free
I am the fire that scorches the bush
And the fragile shoot, rising up from the dust
I am the snow on Kilimanjaro
And the poison on the bushman's arrow
I am the sea of bright flamingos, rising up into the air
And the laugh of the hyena, hiding in its lair
I am the wanderer, on safari
From the Sahara to the great Kalahari
I am the mother at work in the field
And the father preparing his children a meal
I am the lion, crouched low in the grass
And the buffalo wounded, breathing its last
I am the solitary baobab tree
And mysterious ruins, lost to history
I am the Sphinx who guards the sacred words
And I am old – as old as the world
I am the dawn of civilisation
And the mother of every nation
